Strengths/Weakness	Contribution/s & Detailed comments
Although the major issues addressed in this paper are meaningful to be investigated, the research methodology is unclear.	The major issues addressed in this paper are poverty reduction strategies. I think these are meaningful to be investigated. It's not clear how this research has been conducted: was a research methodology followed a literature review? A number of statements are made, however, there are no in-text references added to justify the comments mad/ descriptions given in the Result section. It's unclear how the architecture model of management decision-making (Fig. 1), MCDM methods for selection of criteria-indicator (Fig. 2) and MCDM method for determinations of eligible poor (Fig. 3). Fig. 1 and 2 appear to be the same with each other. It's unclear how the authors unify the model decision-making and the model poverty data (Fig. 4). The authors are suggested to describe how this research has been conducted in the methodology section. The descriptions of the present Methodology section include the background of this study. The conclusions should follow from the evidence provided in the paper. For example, how the authors conclude that the proposed model can be used as tools of verification and validation of data on poverty. What is the evidence for this?

Strengths/Weakness

Minor correction for this paper and be accepted in this conference and congratulation to the author(s). However there are some changes need to do especially with the references need to review because some of the paper references are out dated. The reviewer also suggest to extend the set of data to support the accurate hypotheses or conclusion.

Contribution/s & Detailed comments

Congratulation to the authors because this paper be accepted in this journal however need the minor correction. The reviewers encourage the author(s) extend the set of data so that the output or hypotheses is more accurate.

Strengths/Weakness

Author would like to analyze about the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), which became a commitment that will be achieved in 2030.

Contribution/s & Detailed comments

Technically, the paper is good. The design and explanation is clear. The performance also good

- Concerns:
1. Revise paper format
2. Theory too wordy
3. Blurry Figure 2 and 3

Strengths/Weakness

- Strength:
1. The organisation of the paper was well done
2. Detailed discussion was provided.
3. The paper was easy to read, and organised in an easy-to-follow manner
4. The authors explained their motivations and methods for their study

- Weaknesses :
1. Please check the format of the paper.
2. Some of the references are not up to date

Contribution/s & Detailed comments

The topic presented is relevant to the conference and can contribute to a worthwhile discussion and feedback session from other delegates and participants.

Strengths/Weakness

Author proposed a model of decision making strategies to reduce poverty in Indonesia. The novelty is clear and the paper is good.

Contribution/s & Detailed comments

Technically, the paper is well written. Literature have been explained really well. The English is good.

- Concerns:
1. citation should be [6-9]. No need to do like this "poverty [6], [7], [8], [9], ..."
2. Is the study only valid in Indonesia or worldwide?Please make it clear in your title and abstract if its only a study case for Indonesia.

Strengths/Weakness

Overall, the contents are good and clearly discussed. Accept with minor revision

Contribution/s & Detailed comments

Comments
Introduction/literature review
Sufficient contents with related citation and the significance of the study is well explained.
Methodology
Sufficient data to support the findings
The methodology is well explained
Results/discussion
The results are nicely presented and well discussed

Strengths/Weakness

- strengths
1.This paper represents research on a topic which is current and applicable to a wide range of audience
weaknesses
1.Some minor grammatical and spelling mistakes
2.Need more current references

Contribution/s & Detailed comments

This is a good, interesting topic, accessible to the audience and widely useful completed Weak Accept 6 Weak Accept 6 Weak Accept 6

Strengths/Weakness

The topic is interesting. Although the model is not well described but it is still worth to accept for the conference. The results and findings can be further improved.

Contribution/s & Detailed comments
