Dr. Mohammad Reza Ghane <ijism@ricest.ac.ir> to me Wed, Aug 17, 2022, 5:52 PM

In light of your expertise, we have taken the liberty of registering your name in the reviewer database for International Journal of Information Science and Management (IJISM). This does not entail any form of commitment on your part, but simply enables us to approach you with a submission to possibly review. On being invited to review, you will have an opportunity to see the title and abstract of the paper in question, and you'll always be in a position to accept or decline the invitation. You can also ask at any point to have your name removed from this reviewer list.

We are providing you with a username and password, which is used in all interactions with the journal through its website. You may wish, for example, to update your profile, including your reviewing interests.

Editor Comment for Reviewer

Reviewer Comment For Editor/Editor-in-Chief

1. Due to many grammatical errors, the readers might have difficulties in understanding the message of this manuscript.
2. The authors should divide main information(s) to several paragraphs in order to clarify the point.
3. There're still abbreviation(s) or technical terms that are not explained, so the readers might not understand what they mean.
4. The authors must add or make a stronger case on why the study of webometrics is important to assess the quality of certain website. Comparison to other tools of evaluation might be useful to shed some lights on this topics.
5. Please make a stronger case on why the author have to choose the specific 10 websites? What are the rationale behind it?
