RE: Thank you for volunteering at the Southeast Asian Ceramics Archaeology Laboratory, Flinders University

Dear Dr Effendi,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to convey my heartfelt appreciation for your volunteer efforts at the Southeast Asian Ceramics Archaeology Laboratory (SEACAL), Flinders University.

Between the dates of 03 July – 11 August 2023, we were grateful to have you as a pivotal part of our digitising team. This crucial team is dedicated to the cataloguing and photographing of our significant collection. Your extensive background in photography was highly valued and important to the success of this endeavour.

We sincerely hope that this collaboration will serve as a foundation for fostering stronger ties between Flinders and Mulawarman Universities in the future. We are looking forward to working together on this exciting project.

Once again, thank you for choosing to dedicate your time and skills to our project. Your contribution is deeply appreciated.

Please accept, the assurances of our highest consideration and respect,

Martin Polkinghorne

RE: Invitation to volunteer at the Southeast Asian Ceramics Archaeology Laboratory, Flinders University

Dear Dr Effendi,

I write to extend an official invitation to volunteer at the Southeast Asian Ceramics Archaeology Laboratory (SEACAL), Flinders University.

We eagerly invite you to join our digitising team, which is tasked with cataloguing and photographing the SEACAL Collection.

We are greatly encouraged by your extensive background in photography, and are enthusiastic about the potential advantages your expertise can bring to our project.

We sincerely hope that this collaboration will serve as a foundation for fostering stronger ties between Flinders and Mulawarman Universities in the future. We are looking forward to working together on this exciting project.

Please accept, the assurances of our highest consideration and respect,

Martin Polkinghorne
